This form should be used when your membership of the Scheme terminates to indicate how your benefit should be paid. If you are a Post MPF member, please also complete the “Minimum MPF Benefit Transfer Instruction Form” and only your vested benefit in excess of MMB will be paid to you. Please send the completed form(s) to the Finance Office at least 2 weeks before your last working day to ensure prompt payment of your benefit. Late submission will lead to late payment correspondingly.

成員離開此計劃時，必須填寫此表格，指示有關福利之發還方式。如閣下屬於強積金生效後之成員，請填妥「強積金最低利益轉移指示」表格，而閣下只會獲得超過強積金之最低利益的歸屬權益。請在最後離職日期前兩星期將填妥之表格交回財務處，以確保閣下之福利可獲儘快發還，若逾期遞交表格，有關款項或會延遲發放。

What is Minimum MPF Benefits (MMB)?

MMB is the accrued benefits in respect of a Member who joined an ORSO scheme after the launch of the MPF System on 1 December 2000 and are subject to the preservation, portability and withdrawal requirements up to an amount equivalent to the MMB which represents the lesser calculated amount of (a) and (b) as below:

- (a) The member's benefits accrued during the course of employment, i.e. Benefits derived from the employee's contributions + Benefits derived from the employer's contributions under the vesting scale; and
- (b) $1.2 \times$ final average monthly relevant income (capped at \$30,000) \times years of Post-MPF service

Points to Note - If you are a Post Limited Member

- Your entire benefit balance which represents the minimum MPF benefits will be transferred to your designated MPF Scheme upon your termination / retirement from HKBU
- You cannot roll over your units, therefore, you do not need to fill in the relevant section in the Benefit Payment Option Form
- Member must choose an MPF account for the transfer of their Minimum MPF Benefits, otherwise, it will be kept as cash in the Trustee's bank account where no return is generated

Points to Note - If you are a Post Full Member

- Your minimum MPF benefits will be determined according to the previously defined MMB and it must be transferred upon termination / retirement from HKBU to your designated MPF Scheme
- BCT will calculate the MMB for the transfer
- Member must choose an MPF account for the transfer of their Minimum MPF Benefits, otherwise, it will be kept as cash in the Trustee's bank account where no return is generated

What conditions should I meet for not making the MMB transfer?

- You must be age 65 when you leave the University. You only need to fill in the Claim Form for withdrawal of Minimum MPF Benefits
- Decide NOT to work / Early retirement
 - Age between 60 and 64
 - Statutory Declaration of early retirement and withdraw of the cumulative benefits
 - You need to fill in the Claim Form and Declaration on ground of Early Retirement
- Permanent departure
 - Statutory Declaration of permanent departure and withdraw of cumulative benefits
 - You need to fill in the Claim Form and Declaration on ground of Permanent Departure

When would I be able to withdraw my MMB after the transfer?

- You may withdraw your cumulative benefits when you reach 65
- You may refer to “Decide not to work / Early retirement” and “permanent departure” in the previous slide for information
- Members who have reached the age of 65 or who are early retired at the age of 60 may collect their MPF benefits by installments. There is no limit on the number of installments and amount per each installment. However, from the fifth installment onwards, members should be aware of the possibility of the additional charge imposed
